

THE HAPPY NEWS!

Stars of the week..

In Class A, Savannah has been working hard to use her phonics in her writing. Freya has been challenging herself in maths. In Class B, Darragh has been working hard with his number bonds to eight and Miracle has been working hard to complete his home learning. Great work Reception!

In Class C, Harry has made lots of progress with his handwriting and is continuing to try his best every day with forming his letters. Masty has been completing her amazing 'counting in 5's' maths work! In Class D, Theo and Azara deserve a huge round of applause for their amazing counting in 2's! Brilliant effort, Year 1!

In Class E, Ify has been working consistently throughout the lockdown and has shown real improvement - well done. Marco has shown consistent effort throughout the lockdown, especially with his handwriting - well done. In Class F, Noémie and Nicolas have been working hard to use descriptive language in their writing for this week's Magical Story poetry unit. Well done!

In Class G, Manuel has made a brilliant start to this term with his writing. He has combined creative ideas with his very best presentation. Leo has shown a love of learning throughout the lockdown. His energy, enthusiasm and effort are an inspiration to us all.

In Class H, Scarlett has had an excellent start to this half term. She has been resilient with her maths learning and has used fantastic descriptive language in her early morning work. Keep it up! Also, Poppy is sadly leaving us, she has always been a hard-working, polite and kind pupil. Year 3 wishes you the best of luck at your new school by the seaside, you will be missed!

In Class I, Anselme has written an absolutely breath-taking spy novel! Creating a suspenseful, gripping thriller of a story, we have a John le Carré in the making! This week has seen us change our style of writing and Emily has created incredible and varied writing using all of her skills and knowledge of literary devices. Bravo! In Class J, Joshua has been working hard in maths on his understanding of fractions. He also continues to push himself with his times tables and is regularly on the TTR leaderboard, superstar! Mihret has been working on her descriptive writing, including using a range of adverbs and continues to respond to feedback and knows how to improve. Well done!

In Class L, Haitu has been reaching for the stars with all areas of her home learning and was the overall house points champ this week! Scarlett has been impressing her teachers with her wonderful enthusiasm and master video making skills (including home cooking). In Class K, Anja has been on a journey to create a wonderful video documentary of the journey of our food, sharing her knowledge on import and export products. Stephen on the other hand, has been working with fractions and triumphant in adding with fractions with same and unlike denominators. Excellent work Year 5!

In Class M, Daniel W has been selected for consistently completing work to the very best of his ability. He is really challenging himself whilst learning remotely. Well done and keep up the great effort! Fabio has been making a great effort to take pictures of his learning and is uploading these to Google Classroom. Well done for all your hard work. In Class 6N, Sam has been showing off his writing skills using precise language and historical references in our new English unit on Sherlock Holmes. Yasmina continues to surpass expectations by solving our daily bar model challenge using a variety of strategies. Great work Year 6!

A HUGE well done to all of you...only one more week left until we are together again!

Show and Tell!

Here is a beautiful poem
by Alexandra in Year 3!

Fantasy by Alexandra, Y3

I love fantasy
That makes me happy
By the sea
Where there's honey

It's not tragic
It's just magic
Just don't panic
There's no traffic

Let's have a ride on the locomotion
To the ocean
Let's have a potion
I have a happy emotion

I wish I had a broomstick
But I have a little chick
It gave me a kick
It was very quick.

Check out Julian from 4I's MUDnificent soil painting!

Elliot (Class F) has been learning how to skateboard for his 'Learn Something New' project!

Year 6 brought their favourite furry friends with them to their assembly with Mr F on Friday!

Mia in Class L has been very busy creating her very own business selling fidget toys! Check out her web-site: <https://fidget-with-us.wixsite.com/fidget-with-us>

Nuno from Class A completing a huge space themed puzzle!

Got something exciting to share? Let your teacher know on Google Classroom for the chance to feature in our next issue!

Get crafty!

This weekend, why not plan your costume for World Book Day next week? See what you have lying around the house and see what you can make out of it! We love a homemade costume!!

Mindful Moment...

Find a peaceful place and breathe deeply.
Count the lines on your hands quietly.
